

NEWS FROM ARIN & GOOD GIRL

Term: Fall | Issue 7 | 11, 2021

GIVING TUESDAY ANONYMOUS DONATION

As part of the global giving movement, #GivingTuesday, is fast approaching. To highlight and provide thanks for all the giving we have received, we'd like to give gratitude to the donors who have made this possible—many of them being you! This past month we had an anonymous donor gift of over $10,000 to Arin's Good Girl Dog Treats. We are blown away and inspired by this support, and we cannot wait to create and provide more employment opportunities for the differently abled community. Please consider giving on

MCCLELLAND DONATION

We are beyond grateful that a portion of each of the McClelland's litters is donated to Arin's Good Girl Dog Treats to help grow the business and show their strong support for our mission. We'd like to say a HUGE thank you for their support and gorgeous puppies (many you've likely seen on social media)!

TEAM DEVELOPMENT

Meet our newest team member: Kyra!

Kyra is a high school junior at North Carolina Virtual Academy and will be starting classes at Central Piedmont Community College in 2022. She loves art and is planning on specializing in graphics in college. Her two passions are the NFL and WWE that she shares with her dad. Kyra's greatest strength is doing her best in whatever she does and trying her hardest. Due to a traumatic brain injury from a car accident as a baby, Kyra has faced obstacles throughout her life but nothing makes her happier than proving people wrong when she is told she can't do something. Her vision of the future for the differently abled community is one where all people understand that "differently abled" translates to unique, gifted and competent. There shouldn't be one standard for success, achievement and effectiveness. She says: "Those of us who have challenges in our lives can and do overcome those challenges in ways that make us stronger and more capable than those who don't. I want everyone to know that just because I do things differently or reach a goal in a different way doesn't mean that I am any less worthy of consideration for whatever it is I am seeking to do or be in life".

SMALL BUSINESS SATURDAY SOCIAL MEDIA GIVEAWAY

Over the past year, we have more than quadrupled the size of our team.
